

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at <http://books.google.com/>

LIBRARY REGULATIONS.

ARTICLE 1. The privilege of taking Books from the Library shall belong to members of the Executive Government and members of the Peucinian and Athenæan Societies.

ART. 2. The Library shall be open for taking out and returning books from 11½ to 12½ o'clock on the first Monday of each term, and on every succeeding Monday, Wednesday and Friday during the term, except the last Friday of each term and the 3d Wednesday of the summer term, on which days it shall be open only for the return of books.

ART. 3. Any person entitled to the use of the Library may, on the last Monday of any term, take out eight volumes to be returned by the second Monday of the next term. No person shall be allowed to have out, at any other time, more than four volumes, or to retain any volume for a longer time than four weeks, or later than the last Friday of the term or the 3d Wednesday of the summer term.

ART. 4. No person, except the librarians, shall be allowed to enter the library while it is open for taking out books, nor at any other time unless accompanied by the librarian.

ART. 5. Any person wishing for books shall give to the librarian a list of the numbers of such books, with his signature; and the books shall be delivered at the door by the librarian.

ART. 6. Any person, retaining a book for a longer time than these laws allow, shall pay a fine of five cents per week for each volume so retained.

ART. 7. Any person losing a book belonging to the library shall replace it or pay its value. ●

ART. 8. Peucinians indebted to the society and Athenæans forbidden the use of the Athenæan library shall not be allowed to take out books.

ART. 9. The standing committee shall examine the library after the 3d Wednesday of the summer term and before the next regular meeting, and report at that meeting whether any books are missing and, if any, the number and names of the books; and the librarians shall be required to replace those so reported.
